

Professional Development for Actuaries

CPD Course Programme March - June 2009

BPP Professional Development - Developing Professionals

BPP has put together a comprehensive programme of courses for actuaries, specifically designed to help you meet your CPD requirements. BPP courses are offered to other professionals, giving you the opportunity to broaden your training in a multi-discipline environment.

Our courses can help develop your technical skills, perhaps on Value at Risk, your business and management skills, including Negotiating Skills and Strategic Business Techniques, and even your professional skills.

BPP also offer programmes designed for actuaries by actuaries. These include courses such as Securitisation and Finance and Investment - ideal for those looking to refresh or supplement their actuarial training.

This is just a selection of the professional training we can offer. With a wide range of dates and locations and some courses available online, you can gain this year's CPD requirement at a time and place to suit you.
